Summary of event:

On September 26th, 2023, the Department of Sociology, in collaboration with IQAC, Maharani Kasiswari College, and the Under Graduate Board of Studies in Sociology at the University of Calcutta, hosted a one-day workshop entitled "Semester wise Four Year Honours and Three Year Multidisciplinary Course in Sociology". The primary objective of the workshop was to enrich participants' understanding of the new curriculum structure and its impact on the educational landscape. To this end, four distinguished speakers were invited to share their expertise and insights. These included Dr. Debashis Biswas, Inspector of Colleges at the University of Calcutta, Sri. Gurupada Saren, Secretary of the Faculty Council for Undergraduate Studies at the University of Calcutta, Dr. Sudeshna Basu Mukherjee, Chairperson of the Board of Studies (B.O.S) at the University of Calcutta, and Dr. Aniruddha Chowdhury, Expert at UG.B.O.S. Throughout the workshop, the speakers delved into the crucial aspects of the new course, such as curriculum reforms, assessment methods, internship prospects, and the promotion of holistic learning. Following the technical session, an interactive session was conducted, during which the speakers answered queries and clarified confusion regarding certain issues, such as the content and implementation of the new syllabus, internships, and the availability of books and course materials. Overall, the workshop aimed to empower participants with valuable insights that are essential for creating an impact in the context of an evolving educational ecosystem. The workshop fostered a sense of professionalism and expertise, encouraging participants to engage with the new curriculum structure and its potential.
